he Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He leadeth me to green pastures: he feedeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou art merciful and gracious, O Lord, and thou art slow to anger, and great in mercy. Thou art a God of truth, and thou art without guile. Thou art the God of strength, and thou art the God of power. Thou art the God of glory, and thou art the God of honor. Thou art the God of majesty, and thou art the God of dominion. Thou art the God of all the earth, and thou art the God of all the people. Thou art the God of all the world, and thou art the God of all the nations. Thou art the God of all the universe, and thou art the God of all the things that are.

Therefore, the redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing into Zion, and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

THE BOOK OF THE LORD'S

KINGS CHAPTER 10

(6) Solomon's fame and wisdom: Queen of Sheba (2 Chr. 9:1)

AND when the Queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the Lord, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the Queen of Sheba had heard all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the Lord; there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

To set this on the throne of David: because the Lord loved David for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

2 Two visions of him about the river of Shinar, where he came from: Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the Lord; there was no more spirit in her.

3 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

4 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

10 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

11 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

12 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

13 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

14 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

15 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

16 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

17 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

18 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

19 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

20 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

21 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

22 And the King said unto her, My lord, thou hast said well: but thy servants stand before me continually, and that hear thy wisdom.

23 And she said unto the King, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee.

4 Philip and the Ethiopian

(1) Called from a city-side revival to preach to his soul

26 And the angel of the Lord spoke unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace Queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and open his eyes, and he shall see.

(2) Good example

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would open up and sit with him.

32 The place of the Scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, he opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and he shall declare his generation: for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

(3) Private baptismal service

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water: what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch: and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.
